FILMS

2009 RAJEEV REVISITED

Documentary / release date: 2009 (Iceland)

A follow up on Searching for Rajeev. The film is an ending to the story about my childhood friend Rajeev. With his wedding in India as a story line the film reflect the positive changes that have taken place in his life since our last meeting. The film deals with the great cultural difference we live under today and our friendship that crosses two continents.

2001-2002 SEARCHING FOR RAJEEV

Documentary / release date: 2003 (Iceland)

The film evolves around my journey to India to track down my childhood friend Rajeev. 10 years had passed since he moved from Iceland back to India, and I had very little information about where he was living at that time. I went to India in the weak hope of finding Rajeev, but came back with a rather sad and unexpected story of my childhood friend.
